From the Pastor

We're officially in the holiday season with Christmas right in our sights. In the center of all of this is the great news that "God loved us so much that He gave us Jesus Christ." The angels announced to the shepherds, "We bring you good tidings of great JOY..." As I taught last Sunday, JOY is a divine dimension of life that is not bound by our own personal circumstance or situation.

My hope and prayer for all of Christwalk is that JOY will be found in our lives even more than happiness. As you know, happiness may come and go, depending on what's happening to you, but JOY will be your strength. Have a wonderful week this week and remember to join me and all the CW family for worship this Sunday morning at 10:30.

For those of you interested in playing on the Christwalk co-ed softball team this winter, the first practice will be Sunday, December 11 from 2-4pm at the Ybor Alvarez Softball Fields at the end of Bailey Road.

CW Family Life

A few months ago, Pastor Jim shared a vision for 'CW Family Life', a ministry to the families of our community. Three or four times a year, we will provide events for our community focused on family needs (marriage enrichment, parenting, divorce/single life, etc.). CW will provide the events and our friends in the community around us will be served.

Sheila Thompson (Ryan Spoon's mom) will be returning to Fernandina Beach to serve as the coordinator and planner for these events. She will be serving CW in a part-time capacity. Please welcome Sheila back home. She is excited about what God is doing in her life and she is sure to be a blessing to Christwalk!

January Mission Trip Fundraiser

We would like to ask for your help in meeting the financial needs for our mission trip coming up in January.

We have funds for Pastor's trip, but Russ Wilkins needs help with his. We need to raise $1000 to pay for his trip. He has committed to become the Missions Director for CW, and really wants to go on this trip, but after having broken his back and not getting to work, his finances have not been so good.

Please pray about the need and allow God to speak to you about how you can help.

We have the entire restaurant for this event.
Open seating... Limited menu... pay as you go.

Join Us for
